Happy New Year to one and all and our team wishes all the sea lovers a peaceful and happy 2014! for our divers, we wish you good viz, calm seas and plenty of fish and for our avid anglers, we wish you plenty of adrenalin strikes and catches (and releases, of course). For those who loves being in the ocean, we wish you all safe sea adventures!

January 2014 brings us some nice activities including plenty of PADI training even in 20C waters (which to the rest of the world is relatively warm) especially we have 5mm wetsuits to keep out divers cozy.
