

Al Mahara Diving Center invited the community to join in the PADI Pool Party at Khalidiyah Palace Hotel on 3rd October 2015. PADI professionals Kate, Peter and Kathleen were on hand to introduce all the new comers the art of scuba diving in a PADI Discover Scuba Diving session from 9am-1pm. In the background was great beachy sounds of the classics Beach Boys tunes bellowing through the sound system. A spa massage station was set up to entice the would-be scuba divers to relax even more and enjoy a massage session after the scuba session. The smell of sizzling BBQ also brought in more people as we can smell all the yummy food on the grill.
